

THE CARD COLLECTOR'S BULLETIN

Volume XI

June 1, 1949

Whole No. 60

LONG LIVE THE KING!

CHARLES R. BRAY

Ten years ago plans were being made for the first regular issue of the BULLETIN. The 1939 Catalog had just had its successful introduction and previously there had been eight special Bulletins issued to obtain catalog data. It was evident that card collecting had a future. But some sort of magazine was needed to disseminate the information that was continually coming to light, and to bind together the small group who found pleasure in cards. Printing costs, even in those days, were high and a fancy magazine could not be considered; but a small duplicator was finally obtained and after numerous fumbles the first copy was born.

Getting out sixty issues regularly during these ten years has been a pleasure. Mentally, I have enjoyed it. Physically, however, it has been a bit different and many issues have been gotten out under somewhat distressful conditions. As many of you know, I have been bothered considerably by chronic arthritis, and in recent years it has all but precluded any unnecessary activities. Some will also recall that a year ago I was hospitalized for a month with a leg ailment somewhat similar to that suffered by King George. These, and other things, have required intermittent medical attention, and all in all, I am not in proper condition to continue magazine publication - the work on which must be done regularly in limited spare times - and so I have deemed it wise to put the job into more capable hands.

I greatly appreciate the loyal support which has been given me by readers and advertisers. Their help and good wishes have been a powerful stimulant during the years. I feel that the BULLETIN has been serving a useful purpose and has made card collecting a pleasanter avocation and study. It has grown tremendously in both size and circulation and there is still a large field of usefulness ahead for it.

Your new publisher, Mr. Charles R. Bray, needs no introduction. Since the introduction of the Mail Sales over five years ago he has handled that part of the hobby and built it into a vast constructive element. In fact, it is hard to see how the hobby could really live today without these sales. During these years Mr. Bray, himself, has attained the reputation of being a "square shooter" with a real enthusiasm for cards and with the best interests of the hobby at heart at all times.

I will, of course, assist Mr. Bray as much as possible. He has asked me to handle data on new issues and catalog additions and all such information may still be sent to me. I hope to do this better than in the past. I wish to make an appeal to all readers to assist Mr. Bray with news and articles. Many are capable of writing short feature articles and research studies on card topics. The BULLETIN will continue to be your magazine and support of this kind will always be appreciated.

Matters concerning subscriptions and advertising should hereafter be sent directly to Mr. Bray at East Bangor, Penna. The rates for these have remained substantially unchanged since the start despite the greatly increased costs of paper, postage, and other supplies. That was because I have considered the magazine as part of my card hobby and was content to overlook occasional small deficits, in addition to doing the entire work of publication without consideration of the time and labor involved, and I wish to assure you that the time and labor required is much more than anyone would dream possible for so small a publication. Since Mr. Bray will have to hire some of this work done, he will of necessity have to increase rates a small amount. These increases, in fact, should have been made some years back when costs began to advance. For subscriptions, the new rate will be 50¢ per year, with present subscriptions carried to their expiration at the old rate. The advertising rate will be 40¢ for 1/4 page, 70¢ for 1/2 page, and $1.30 for full page advertisements. These rates are fully justified by increased costs and increased circulation. I am sure all readers will realize that the Bulletin, for a speciality publication, still has extremely low rates.

Again, I thank you all for your past support. With its continuance, I'm sure that the Bulletin, under Mr. Bray, will appear regularly and add its bit to a hobby which has few equals in interest and pleasure. In fact, with a little extra effort from everyone it can easily become bigger and better than ever. Let's all do our part. - J.R. Burdick.

HANDBOOK FOR POST CARD COLLECTORS. This neat little booklet of 52 pages (5 1/2 x 8 1/4) will tell you more about post cards than you ever thought possible. Gives their geneology, analyzed and classifies in every way, mfg. processes, materials, types, and designs. 270 illustrations to show samples of everything. The authors, W. Bourcy-Beckley and M. Ruth Duke, have missed little in post card information. Get your copy from Louis B. Harrison, 331 South Hill St., Los Angeles 13, Calif. at $1. postpaid.

MORE SCREENINGS. On another page we list two responses to our notes on catalog listings. A later letter just at hand from Mr. E.C. Wharton-Tigar of London verifies the existence of "Autograph Series" by Tuckett of Canada. It is identical to the British Taddy series and is apparently another set which seems to have mostly gone abroad.

The President, Dr. L. Kurzrok, appeared on the CBS television program Sports Special, with Cas Adams and Dolly Stark, March 16th, explaining the various types of cards. He will be a guest on another television program in May.

A representative of the Print Department from the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York City, attended the April meeting. Mr. Burdick's cards are being prepared for exhibition in this department.

A majority of the members were interested in starting a sales service for their good duplicates. Any member wishing to sell his duplicates and unable to attend meetings, can send his cards to the secretary, who will, in turn, bring them to the following meeting. Prices and names should be distinctly marked on each pack to be sold. A 10% commission is to be deducted from each sale for the Society's treasury. Want lists from members will be filled wherever possible.

Two separate articles appeared in the March and April issues of Hobbies Magazine about the Society.

Meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month, 8:00 P.M. at the home of the president, Dr. L. Kurzrok, 9 East 96th Street, New York City. Dues are $2.00 per year. Any hobbyist is welcome to join.

KINLEY MILITARY SERIES

Last August four titles were added to this series and the prediction made that four more would be found. These can now be given as: 623-Private, 47th Regt. 624-Lieutenant, Albany Burgess Corps (both N.G. S.N.Y. 1887). 625-Captain 11th Hussars. 626-Captain, 13th Hussars (both England 1879). It now seems probable that this completes the listing of different titles in the series at 622 - the difference of four being due to four numbers in the original list being crossed off and given an a)minor number. The last resume of this series was made seven and one half years ago. Following is the present status of the series:

Group-Quantity COLORED BACKGROUND TYPES

- A-50 Collection No.7 (number "7" in lower left corner).
- B-50 Collection No.8 (List on back).
- C-30 Set No.9 (List on back). These back lists differ slightly from the face titles but can easily be identified.
- D-50 Designs similar to A,B & C.(no set number) Includes 21 foreign soldiers, 11 State soldiers, 8 Native types, 5 Military Decorations and 5 State Seals.
- E-50 Foreign 1886 types. Name in white panel at bottom. Each of these is known in a minor a)variety in which the colored bkgd is omitted (see Note 1). Two have also been seen in a sub-minor b)variety in which only the red color in bkgd.is missing (see note 2).
- F-26 Remainder. Includes 18 Continental soldiers, 3 Vatican types, and 5 Decorations. One of the Continentals (#7) and one Vatican(#603) are known in a white bkgd.a)variety. The Decorations (see list in Catalog Appendix) are scarce and three of them are known in two varieties, the difference being in the color of the centre bkgd. Probably the other two similarly exist.(see Note 3).

WHITE BACKGROUND TYPES

- G-51 U.S.Army and Navy. Eight of the Army designs come in an a)minor variety with a fine red dotted background.
- H-85 U.S.State types. These can be further divided into 51 with a large figure and 34 small figure. In the smaller, the initials of the brand name (I-S-C) are larger than other letters of the words.
- I-60 U.S. and Foreign. Brand name is set in 3 lines at side. Includes Jamaica error - which looks like a name error and correction but may also otherwise be accounted for.
- J-50 U.S. & Foreign. Includes the 19 N.G.S.N.Y. and 31 England.
- K-50 Foreign 1853 types. Inscription in two lines.
- L-50 Foreign types. Inscription as E group but not all are dated 1886.
- M-20 Remainder. Includes 15 French Army & Navy 1886 types and 5 State Seals with Gray bkgd. The seals come in 2 varieties - with and without a blue edge.(Pa.not seen thus but probably exists)(Note 3)

To these should be added the 5 listed cutouts (4 vertical designs in M-group seals and name error #226a). The total number of varieties may thus, with 5 cutouts, be approximately 85 to 90.

Note 1-Checklist numbers of E-group are: 286,287,294,388,389,391,395, 397,403,404,405,406,410,411,437,439,441,442,443,444,445,454,455,459,502, 503,504,505,507,509,510,514,515,518,519,524,525,527,528,531,534,538,542, 543,544,545,547,549,550,551.

Note 2-These two b)varieties are Sweden #543 and 547. They possibly are printing errors, in which case 10 or 11 more may exist as such groups of 50 were usually printed with 4 plates of 12 or 13 designs each. Some of the ABCD groups were printed in strips by another method.

Note 3-There is, in actuality, no major-minor status for these five Decorations and the five gray bkgd seals. They are of equal scarcity and value, and either variety may be considered adequate for completing the series - which with little doubt, stops at the 622 figure.

KIMBALL-KINNEY WANTS. A few reminded us that we had forgotten to print a list of the Kimball and Kinney cards still lacking in the Metropolitan collection. It was an oversight, but these things are so scarce that one wonders if it is worth while printing. Yet, strange things do happen, and maybe somebody will be able to supply a few of these cards and help complete the collection. Missing items are:

Kimball ANCIENT COINS(List Bull.28)-#3,15,20,29,34,31,65,67.
GODDESSES-Terpsichore*. CHAMPIONS(without firm name) Hanlon. LG.BATHERS one unlisted in Bull.30. Sets #193,195,197,198-send for selection.

NGSNY; Seal Pa. plain edge; Order of Garter; Orders Iron Crown, Legion of Honor with white bkgd; White bkgd minors-Austria Pioneer, Germany Art. Train, Sweden Soldier of Line, Italy Vatican. NOVELTIES, Ty1(thick round)lack 3; Ty4(embossed)-acorn, bell, camera, 3 leaf clover, dunce cap, hand mirror, hassock, knapsack, scuttle, snowshoe, tpp hat, vase, guitar; Ty5(rect. card)-camera, clock, white goblet, hand lantern, oval serving tray, sewing box. EX. LG. HORSES-vingston, Diablo, Raceland, Dexter, Goldsmith Maid, Johnson, Maud S, Jay eye see, Maxy Cobb, Phallas, St. Julian. INAUGURALS, INTERNATIONALS, HARLEQUINS(all large) send any for selection.

CATALOG SCREENING. Only two collectors have sent in any information about these doubtful items. Mr. C. Glidden Osborne of England verifies set 502b, the Occupations for Women by Cameron & Cameron. He has 19 of them, which makes us wonder if they all went abroad as none are seen here. Their backs give a Richmond, Va. address and state that the firm received the only award for tobacco at the 1893 Columbian Exposition. Mr. T.D. deBlois of Ottawa writes about Cubebs "There's not a shred of tobacco in them, in fact, that was the main reason parents in the nine-ties let their children smoke them as a remedy for catarrh, colds, etc. They're made from a dried tropical plant." Now we wonder where they should be catalogued - maybe back in that "etc" group at bottom of page 97. It seems the only place, or shall we be lenient and let them remain as is? Who can tell any more about any of these or any other listing about which there is any doubt? Non-existent items are often carried on from old catalogings when they should be checked and crossed off.

The 31st was our largest sale to date and I want to thank all the bidders for their support. A nice large sum was netted for the widow of the late Mr. Arel of Canada, who in his day helped so many collectors. This new 32nd sale contains another fine selection with something for both beginner and advanced collector. Remember to get Bid Sheets to me before the closing date of July 10th. Thanks.

CHARLES R. BRAY, EAST BANGOR, PENNA.
